Whether you need to decorate for Easter or spring entertaining, find inspiration from Out of the Garden's kitchen countertop display that adds interest and drama to the everyday space. Out of the Garden is a unique floral boutique based in the Old Village in Mt Pleasant. Find additional arrangements at the Marsh House pool deck during the reception following the tour.

HOME 2 – 20 GREENSWARD ROAD*Designer: Grace Cribbin, Aubergine Home*

Find textile inspiration for your home with beautiful custom designs by Grace Cribbin of Aubergine Home. Grace has beautifully outfitted a patio with all you need for soaking up summer fun and a guest room that showcases custom draperies designed to perfectly balance a room. Aubergine Home is a home furnishings company based in Charleston, with a store in Freshfields Village.

HOME 4 – 125 HALONA LANE*Artist: Danielle Cather Cohen*

Danielle's intuitive nature and love of color leads her to create many vibrant works in subjects as broad as abstract/contemporary, figurative, wildlife, landscapes, and especially nautical works and seascapes. Within all of these subjects, she relies on her use of color to visually delight, unify a composition, and to create a mood and a feeling in the viewer. Danielle is also very involved in local charitable work relating to her artwork, and has completed five large outdoor murals around Charleston. Danielle's works are currently on display at John C. Doyle Gallery in Charleston.

HOME 5 – 60 FLETCHER HALL*Renowned Cupper: Coffee Roasters of Charleston*

Coffee Roasters of Charleston will debut their Model T truck, serving fresh coffee to-go. The product is fair trade and the company only uses organic Arabica beans, hand roasted in small batches, and then bagged immediately to seal in freshness. The Coffee Roasters of Charleston produce a super premium specialty grade coffee that is also offered by the bag at various local restaurants.

Sweet, savory, stuffed croissants from Rudi's Old Village Wine Shop will pair just the right amount of salty and sweet with the coffee. Offerings include Italian Fig Jam and a bit of Irish butter as well as 24-month aged Parma Prosciutto croissants.

HOME 6 – 78 WAX MYRTLE COURT*Artist: Laura Lloyd Fontaine*

Laura's impressive style has been called representational painting, or as she refers to it, contemporary impressionism with a traditional flair. She works with oil glazes on a textured surface as her craft is painting mainly on large gallery wrap canvas. Laura relies on her many charcoal sketches of compositions and plein air paintings for the intensity of the light and the value changes. Her works are represented in galleries in Atlanta, GA, Greenville and Hilton Head, SC, Charlotte, NC, and Hagan Fine Art in downtown Charleston.

HOME 8 – 1 BUFFLEHEAD DRIVE*Display: Old Charleston Joggling Board Co.*

Since the early 1800's, joggling boards have occupied a special place in the hearts of Lowcountry residents as so much of life revolved around the family board. For over 50 years, Old Charleston Joggling Board Co. has been shipping their joggling boards and benches to customers all over the world. See how their custom boards and benches make a handsome addition to any Lowcountry yard, porch, or garden.

HOME 9 – 2 AVOCET LANE*Pop-up Cafe: Rudi's Old Village Wine Shop*

Take in the beautiful garden from the back patio and enjoy a specialty nibble and refreshing Blood Orange Spritz at the hand of Rudi's Old Village Wine Shop. Located on Pitt Street in Mt. Pleasant, Rudi's Old Village Wine Shop offers fresh pressed coffees, sandwiches, and gift items, in addition to an impressive display of charcuterie, artisan cheeses, and wines. A second café recently opened downtown on King Street at Skinny & Dip Charleston.

HOME 10 – 87 SAVANNA POINT*Designer: Betsy Munday, GDC Home*
